

Employment Protection and Support Package

GET IT RIGHT THE FIRST TIME

Getting your recruitment right and being a good employer are key to having a successful working relationship with your support person.

You may want employment advice from time to time and in any employment relationship there is a risk that disagreements will turn into formal legal disputes.

As part of this package you will get

- Employment Disputes and Employer Liability Insurance
- Membership to the Employers and Manufacturers Association with access to their employment relations advice service, seminars and online resources
- Recruitment and employment templates and resources
- Guide to Employing your own Support Workers downloadable resource pack

COST
$199 per year

The Employer Protection and Support Package will help you get it right the first time and protect you if the worst happens.
